The cables as solid cylinders emerge from the anchorage eight feet below grade line of bridge.

An important part in anchoring the strands is the "shoe" (see Figs. 6 and 7).