the last strand is in position, the cable will be wrapped. The whole wrapping apparatus consists of three parts: the wrapping carriage (Figs. 43 and 44);

the squeezers (ss in Fig. 45) and the wrapping machine proper (Figs. 45 and 46).

A "carriage" is first placed on each cable at both sides of the towers. It is similar in construction to the one used