enough for the free passage of all large vessels (which will avoid close approach to the shores)—as this hinged arch design. You have simply to raise the floor fifteen feet to get a clear head-room of very nearly 150 feet, of 300 feet width on the first design and 370 feet width on the second.

Respectfully submitted,

J. G. BARNARD,

Member of Board of Consulting Engineers.