Department of Forests and Waters, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
129 pp., Harrisburg, 1936.
Describes the floods of the Lehigh and Delaware Rivers during March, 1936.

Contains descriptions of the Delaware River and the Delaware Water Gap.

1937

Chidsey, A. D., Jr. - The Penn Patents in the Forks of the Delaware.
Northampton County Hist. and Gen. Soc., vol. 2, 91 pp., 9 maps, Easton, 1937.
Much information regarding early land owners. Reproductions of early maps.

Fenton, Carroll Lane, and Fenton, Mildred Adams. - Cambrian Calcareous
Algae from Pennsylvania.
Describes Cryptonoth prolifera philati from Bucks Co., Doliolphyceae expansa from Raubsville and Acanthophyceae compacta from Portland, Northampton Co.

Fraser, D. M. - Basic Rocks of the Eastern Pennsylvania Highlands.
Discusses relationships of the basic rocks in this and adjoining sections.

Miller, Benjamin L. - Casts of Halite Crystals in the Beekmantown Limestone.
Description and photograph of halite crystal casts from the dolomitic limestones of Portland, Northampton County.

Miller, Ralph L. - Martinsburg Limestones in Eastern Pennsylvania.
Discussion, pp. 2033-2037.
Describes some Martinsburg limestones of Northampton County.

Miller, Ralph L. - Stratigraphy of the Jacksonburg Limestone.
Discusses paleoecology, stratigraphic and structural characteristics of the Jacksonburg as developed in Northampton County and adjoining areas. Briefly describes seven occurrences of volcanic ash within the county.

Sherman, J. D. - Lehigh River Flood Control Survey.
Works Progress Administration Project 6675, U. S. Engineer Office, War Department, Philadelphia, 1937.
A series of forty-seven blueprint topographic charts of the flood plains of the Lehigh River and lower portions of tributaries from Easton to Laurys. Also profiles of Lehigh and Delaware Rivers and tributaries. Charts on scales of 1 inch = 100 or 200 feet and 1 to 5,000.

1938

Itter, Harry Augustus. - Geomorphology of the Wyoming-Lackawanna Region.
Pennsylvania Topog. and Geologic Survey Bull. G 9, 82 pp., 9 plates, 46 figures, 1938.
Discusses ancient drainage systems of eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey which includes Northampton County.

Mackin, J. Hooven. - The Origin of Appalachian Drainage - A Reply.
Discusses paper by Meyerhoff and Omsted published in 1936. Disagrees with the authors and accepts theory of D. Johnson.

Ward, Freeman. - Recent Geological History of the Delaware Valley Below the Water Gap.
Detailed descriptions of the glacial deposits of the Delaware River Valley across Northampton County.