IN RECOGNITION OF PAUL E. FITZPATRICK

HON. JACK QUINN
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Paul E. Fitzpatrick. Mr. Fitzpatrick is a constituent who represents the very best of community spirit and activism. Paul Fitzpatrick has been recently honored as the firstward Irishman of the Year. This award, with its admirable criteria and distinguished history, is a testament to Mr. Fitzpatrick’s achievements.

The Irishman of the Year award has been received by the likes of former mayor of Buffalo, James Griffin, and former Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, James T. Molloy.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is employed as a recreational therapist at the West Seneca Developmental Disabilities Service Office. In this position, Mr. Fitzpatrick provides recreational and leisure activities for the developmentally disabled both on the campus of the developmental center and in various community settings.

In addition to helping disadvantaged youths, Mr. Fitzpatrick has proven himself to be a dedicated community activist always willing to help others. His countless successes and his years of service are evidence of his sincere devotion to bettering the community.

EULOGY FOR E. DETREVILLE ELLIS, COLONEL, USA (RET.), MARCH 12, 1890±JANUARY 22, 1995
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, on January 31, 1995, E. Detreville Ellis, colonel, U.S. Army (retired) was buried at Arlington National Cemetery. He was buried with full military honors, most appropriate for a man who served his country with great distinction for so many years.

At the time of his death, Colonel Ellis was 104 years of age, the oldest living graduate of West Point. General Eisenhower and General Bradley were two of his classmates—the class of 1915. He also was a graduate of the University of South Carolina, Harvard Business School, the Command and General Staff School, and the Army War College.

During World War I, Colonel Ellis served in the 2d Cavalry on the Mexican border and as assistant chief of staff with the 10th Infantry Division. In World War II, he served in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of War. He was commanding officer of the European Quarter master Depot during the Berlin Airlift. He received the Army Commendation Ribbon with Oak Leaf Cluster. Colonel Ellis retired from active duty in 1950.

Mr. Speaker, DeTreville Ellis was a unique individual. He lived his life to the fullest, always helping others. He loved the military and West Point. But most of all, he loved his family and many friends. Survivors include a sister, Julia Hamlin, Summerville, SC; a son-in-law, Tracy E. Mulligan, Jr., Chevy Chase, MD; two grandsons, Tracy Ellis Mulligan and John R. Mulligan, both of Silver Spring, MD; six great-grandchildren, Tracy, Rebecca and Joseph Mulligan and Sharon, Christopher and Dennis Mulligan, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. He will be greatly missed.

The following eulogy, written by Colonel Ellis’ grandson, Tracy Ellis Mulligan, was delivered by U.S. Army Chaplain, Maj. Stephen D. Turner, at the Fort Myer Chapel, January 31, 1995:
