A. Bear Rocks. Summit of Kittatinny (Blue) Mountain near Lynn-Heidelberg township line. Hard resistant sandstones of the Tuscarora formation.

B. Bauer Rock or Big Rock, top of South Mountain, southeast of Allentown. A residual mass of Pochuck gneiss rising precipitously above the general crest of the mountain and not of glacial origin as commonly believed. Perhaps the most generally known scenic feature of Lehigh County.